1—File your FAFSA.

Students interested in Federal Financial Aid must file a Free Application for Student Aid (FAFSA) at www.fafsa.gov. FAFSA processing usually takes 4-8 weeks, but it can take as long as 12 weeks to process, so file early. Remember to list Klamath Community College and its Federal School Code—034283—on your FAFSA.

2—Take the COMPASS Placement Test.

Most new students need to take a COMPASS Placement Test before registering for classes. This test is broken into two parts: Math and Reading/Writing. It usually takes about two hours to complete the entire test. The test is free to KCC students. Contact Student Services in person or at 541.880.2350 to register for COMPASS.

You won't have to take the COMPASS Placement Test if:

(1) You have already completed MATH 111 and WRITING 121 with a "C" or better.

(2) You have already earned a college degree of any type (i.e. Associate's, Bachelor's, Master's).

3—Register for classes.

Meet with a Student Services Representative in Building 3 to register for classes, or do so online at mykcc.klamathcc.edu.

4—Attend New Student Orientation

New Student Orientation is held once per term on the Thursday prior to the first day of classes. It is required for students who have never attended college before. Contact Student Life at 541.880.2207 to register for New Student Orientation.

5—FERPA & Confidentiality Notice

According the Federal Law, KCC is allowed to share the "Directory Information" of its students, which includes your name and contact info. If you would like your information to be kept private, you can fill out a "Directory Information Withholding Request" and return it to the Business Office in Building 3. Withholding information can create difficulties, so we advise against it, but the choice is yours.

Further, depending on your program of study, KCC must share information vital to your education with contracted educational service providers. All information is kept confidential and provided on a need-to-know basis.

6—Submit transcripts.

If you have prior college credits, please send official transcripts to:

Klamath Community College, Attn: Transcripts, 7390 S. 6th Street, Klamath Falls, OR 97603.
