- v. Old Business

Welcome week- Natalia, Jonny, and Judah thought it went very well, some concern with how well the events were being marketed. It is estimated that there were over 100 students at each event.
- vi. New Business

- a. Monte Carlo- Deveyn states that it is this Thursday, asking all ASKCC members to be there and to flex our hours if needed. States that it is at Yesterdays Plaza at 5:30. States that there will be prizes and to try and dress nicely.
- b. SOU visit- Deveyn states that it is on Monday the 20th. States that ASKCC members don't have to go but are welcome to if they don't have a class. States that we would leave at 8 or 8:30, go eat breakfast, go tour the campus, go get boba and get back to school around 3. States that we will be riding in the van most likely. Jonny states he has class that day and cannot go.
- c. ASKCC Townhall- Deveyn states she doesn't know when it is, then states how we have done town halls in the past which included students filling out a survey and getting lunch and being able to talk to ASKCC members' questions. Natalia states that the survey is a good option to have but that the ASKCC members need to be there for face-to-face conversations. Natalia asks if we can have more than one town hall. Deveyn states we can do surveys for people on the go, we can make the survey super easy and sit and do it with the students, or we can set up different tables for the members and let the students flock to who they feel the most comfortable with. Deveyn states that ASKCC needs to pick a time and date that works for all ASKCC members to be there. Natalia states that tacos or Chinese food would be a good food choice for the town hall.

Updates And Open Discussion

Open floor- Natalia states she is concerned with some people's abilities to balance their work and life schedules. Jonny and Natalia state that when looking to hire for the vacant ASKCC positions, we should look for people who check all the boxes and are able to maintain good workplace relations and able to balance schedules.
